BUSINESS RESUMES
IN TORREON TOWN

Heaves the insurgents will make any more trouble for the larger cities; what fighting there is to be, all believe will occur in the mountains.

That conditions are rapidly resuming their normal status is being evidenced by the recent activity in real estate and building circles in Torreon. Real estate companies have received more inquiries during the past week than for three weeks previous, the opinion prevailing that the defeat of the insurgents in Chihuahua will settle for a long time the question of "revolutions" in Mexico.

Carlos Martinez, a local capitalist, has purchased half a block in Avenida Morales, and will build an imposing residence on it. Dr. Garza Aldape has purchased one of the 10 room houses which the Torreon Land and Construction company has under construction. During the excitement at Gomez Palacio and the rumors of impending trouble in Torreon there was not a single workman laid off of the hundreds employed in constructing new buildings. Chabot y Cia. moves into their palatial new home this week.
